

Superintendent's Corner

Kirk McMahon
Superintendent

November 2, 2013

Thursday marked our annual Kindergarten Costume Parade in the hallways of Atwater Elementary. There were students dressed as ice cream cones, pink leopards, policemen and a variety of other ghoulish figures! I appreciate the assistance our staff received from the parents who organized the classroom celebrations. Those parents worked with the children on craft projects and other fun fall activities. It was also nice to see our staff getting into the spirit of things by dressing up as their favorite characters.

I would like to wish our Circleville High School Marching Band and Director Mark Schoenbeck the best of luck in today's OMEA State Marching Band Competition at Hilliard Bradley High School. So, if you are travelling to the Columbus area this afternoon, stop in and see our band competing at 3:45 pm.

As always, if you have any questions on any district issues, please give me a call.

Go Tigers!

